1916.

I am & offer
wishes to dear
Nora for a
Merry Xmas

from her
Y & mother

Celine Butler

Rainy weather.

1. Januar

I read "Anne of the Island" and wrote
several letters in the morning. In the afternoon I drew a picture of myself. Played mandolite later. I hope this diary will tell of a good year.

a foggy cloudy day.

2. Januar

I was not allowed to go to church. Kitty came and we talked. after lunch I read "Little Sir Galahad" until Kitty came again. Mrs. Glominger came to dinner. In the evening I played mandolin.

a clear bright day

3. Januar

I went out walking with mother. First time I had been out since 24th Dec. Then I read.

In the afternoon I took Gramma Lorie, Ruth to see Mary Pickford in "Madame Butterfly". Very good tho bad. Then we went to Miller then played mandolin and sang.

a nice clear day.

4. Januar

I went to school and then to Mr. Fon Dersmith.
After lunch I went to school then Lorie Ruth and Betty & I played military academy in parlor. Betty got funny we squabbled. They left Lorie & I play pool. Lorie later I studied & Mr. Wendell.

first rain, then clear, then rain again.

5. Januar

I went to school and we got out at 12.45 cause of Mrs. Shands funeral. Ruth and I went to Rott's and other stores. In the afternoon near Bea went back to Princeton and after school I went to Ruth's house. I wrote to Dad & played mandolite & read later.
